

Literatuurlijst bij Nieuwsbrief November 2011

1. Merskey, H. and N. Bogduk, Part III: Pain Terms, A Current List with Definitions and Notes on Usage, in Classification of Chronic Pain, H. Merskey and N. Bogduk, Editors. 1994, IASP press: Seattle). p. 209-214
2. Hugonnard M et al., 2004. Attitudes and concerns of French veterinarians towards pain and analgesia in dogs and cats. VAA 31, p. 154-163.
3. Hewson C et al. 2006. Factors affecting the use of postincisional analgesics in dogs and cats by Canadian veterinarians in 2001. Can Vet J. 47, p.453-459.
4. Kankkunen P et al., 2004. Families' and children's postoperative pain-- literature review. J Paediatr Nurs 19, 133-139.
5. Lavand'Homme P., 2011. The progression from acute to chronic pain. Curr. Opin. Anaesthesiol 24, p. 545-550.
6. White PF and H Kehlet, 2010. Improving postoperative pain management: what are the unresolved issues? Anesthesiology 112, p. 220-225.
7. Broome M. et al.,1998. Relationships between cognitive behavioral techniques, temperament, observed distress, and pain reports in children and adolescents during lumbar puncture. J Paediatr Nurs 13, 48-54.